

2023 MPHN Primary Healthcare Awards

Applications will be assessed using the following evaluation criteria. The judging panel will include two firsthealth Pty Limited Board Directors and an MPHN Senior Leadership Team member. The judge's decision is final.

#	Pre-condition criteria	Compliance
i.	Was the majority of the activity was undertaken during the financial year period of 2022-2023?	Yes / No
ii.	Does the activity nominated focus on a community / communities within the Murrumbidgee region?	Yes / No
iii.	Does the application provide supporting evidence of success of activity?	Yes / No
iv.	Does the application include supporting videos or photos? (NB: Not supplying does not disqualify you from being awarded in this category, this question is for administrative purposes.)	Yes / No
v.	If applicant is unable to attend awards presentation, has a representative been listed along with contact details? (NB: Not nominating a representative does not disqualify you from being awarded in this category, this question is for administrative purposes.)	Yes / No
vi.	Is this application peer or self-nominated?	Peer / Self

Category: Promoting Healthy Living

Evaluation Criteria

1. Details of activity/program (Max marks 20)

Describe the activity and its direct link to promoting a culture change towards healthy living.

- Does the application clearly demonstrate the link between the promotion of culture change and healthy living?
- What evidence was there to demonstrate the need for the activity?

2. Key deliverable – encouraging healthy behaviours (Max marks 20)

How does the activity encourage healthy behaviours?

- To what extent does the activity encourage and promote healthy behaviours?
- Are there any innovations or creative ways this encouragement is being achieved?
- To what extent is this encourage best practice?

3. Key deliverable – evidence informed (Max marks 15)

To what extent is the program evidence-informed?

- Was the activity undertaken supported by evidence to address the issue?
- To what extent was the activity guided by evidence-based research?

4. Key deliverable - outcomes (Max marks 20)

What results have been achieved as a result of the activity?

- How has this activity improved healthy lifestyles which have or will lead to longer term cultural or behaviour changes to positive lifestyle choices?
- After the activity is there a stronger capacity in the community or for the participant to make positive lifestyle choices into the future?

5. Supporting evidence (Max marks 25)

How does the feedback / testimonials / evidence support the success of the activity?

- Measurable / demonstrated success outcomes?
- Evidence of participant support?
- Good news story?
- Positive feedback or testimonials?